

LHCP

Fourth Annual Conference On Large Hadron Collider Physics

13-18 June
Lund, Sweden

2016

Monday June 13th

Daily News

PROGRAMME

Plenary sessions:

Morning (9-12:15, Stora Salen): highlights from the LHC, LHC experiments and event generators.

Afternoon (13:30-15:30, Stora Salen): highlights from the LHC, LHC experiments and event generators, Higgs SM and BSM (Stora Salen) Higgs SM and BSM (Stora Salen)

Lunch can be collected in cafe Athen, behind the registration desk. There are chairs and tables in the restaurant across the hall.

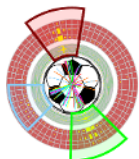

Parallel Sessions:

Afternoon (16:00-18:20):

- Outreach (Konsertsalen)
- QCD (Lilla Salen)
- Performance (Nya Salen)
- Higgs (Stora Salen)

EURO 2016

Turkey 0 - Croatia 1
Germany 2 - Ukraine 0
Poland 1 - N. Ireland 0

LUND TRIVIA

The image on our conference poster is the University library, established in 1666 and one of the two libraries in Sweden that are required to keep legal deposit copies of everything printed in the country since 1698. This makes up half of the library collection, which was about 170000 (linear) meters of shelving in 2006.

(source: Wikipedia and <http://www.lub.lu.se/om-lub-organisation/lub-i-siffror-2006.html>)

EVENTS TODAY

Welcome reception

18:30, Main university building

The drinks reception will be held on Monday evening after the sessions, in presence of the deputy Mayor of Lund, Christina Sjöström, who will give a welcome address.

USEFUL INFORMATION

The Conference4me app can be downloaded from the Android and Apple Store, and provides personalized information on the agenda and on the local attractions.

A representative from the Lund Tourist Office will be at AF Borgen during lunchtime.

LHCP ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Follow us on twitter for real-time insights, photos and news about the conference:

@LHCPhysics, @LHCP Lund,
#lhcp2016

On Facebook:

<http://www.facebook.com/lhcp2016>